Bourbon Circuit Court Adjourned FRIDAY.

The last trial by jury at the March term of the Bourbon Circuit Court came to a conclusion Friday morning when after an argument by E. M. Dickson, of counsel for the plaintiff, in the case of the Burley Tobacco Society vs. D. G. Taylor, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of forty-eight dollars. A second suit against Mr. Taylor and two similar suits by the Society against Sam Houston were dismissed as settled. Judge Stout then discharged the petit jurors.

SATURDAY.

Before the final adjournment of the Court Saturday Judge Stout announced his decision in the divorce proceedings of Thomason vs. Thomason in which he refused to grant the husband, A. C. Thomason, the relief applied for. Mr. Thomason will carry the case to the Court of Appeals, and his attorneys, Talbott & Whitley and Charles A. McMillan, were given time in which to prepare a bill of exceptions.

Court Day.

A large crowd was in town yesterday in attendance upon April court, but owing to the seasonable weather, farmers who were behind with their work were kept away, with the result that the crowd which usually attends the April court was greatly reduced.

There were few cattle on the market and while trading was slow the entire amount was disposed of. M. J. Murphy & Co. report 60 heifers of a very poor quality at their pens which were sold at prices ranging from $17.50 to $30 per head.

About fifty mules on the market, but the demand was light and many were left unsold. Thos. McClintock, of Millersburg, sold three to Lexington parties for $640. Clark McClintock sold ten at prices ranging from $108 to $250. A few horses on the market but little trading.

Kicked By Horse.

Oscar Menifee, aged 17 years, son of Dan Menifee, was kicked by a horse yesterday and suffered an injury which may prove fatal. Menifee, with a number of other boys was on the courthouse square where there were a number of horses and mules. He was approaching a horse when the animal kicked him in the head cutting a gash over his left eye several inches in length. The boy was picked up unconscious and carried to his home where medical aid was summoned. Dr. D. B. Anderson, the attending physician, removing him to the St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, late yesterday afternoon in Hinton's ambulance. It is feared his skull is fractured.

Plans for the exploiting company which will sink gas wells near Carlisle, have been completed and it is thought that the drilling will be begun shortly. Several pockets of gas have been struck in and around Carlisle and citizens believe that it can be found in paying quantities.

Wheat Supply Short.

The visible supply of wheat is 18,000,000 bushels less than last year. The price of flour will advance soon, because of the many reports of damage to the growing wheat plant, caused first by the extremely wet condition of the ground, and second by the extreme cold weather at a time when the wheat plant had no protection whatever.

Owing to an appreciable decrease in the visible supply of the country the millers are predicting an increase, or advance in the price of flour. They believe that the advance in the cost of wheat products will come soon and unexpectedly. The decrease in the wheat supply came as a great surprise as an increase had been expected. According to reports from commission men, there has been a better milling demand for cash wheat in the Northwest as well as in the Southwest.

According to reports from Minneapolis 170,000 barrels of flour were sold in one day in that city recently. Dealers estimate that the flour sold in Minneapolis last month exceeds that of the same month last year by 500,000 barrels, at the same time the visible wheat is 18,000,000 bushels less than last year at this time.

Farmers as well as millers believe that all the cash wheat in Chicago is owned by one man, and that May wheat will be $1.25 per bushel. Neither the farmers nor the millers think that there is as much wheat in the country as is the supposition of many. It is believed that the farmers will hold at least a small part of their last year's crop of wheat until such time as they will be able to determine the condition of the growing crop.

Cook Book To Be Used By Uncle Sam.

Uncle Sam is about to issue a cook-book, and the cook-book may be had for the asking from the Department of Agriculture. In its investigation into the high price of food it has discovered quite generally, that the cheaper cuts of meat are more difficult to cook properly than are the high-priced steaks and cuts, and that this difficulty is due to a lack of knowledge by the housewife or the cook of how to make the meat appetizing and palatable. Therefore, Secretary Wilson determined some time ago to provide the housekeepers of this country with practical knowledge of how to cook meats, and his department has now issued a cook-book which will tell how to cook meat economically and palatably. The book is known as "Economic Use of Meats in the Home" and a copy will be sent to anyone who writes for it to the Secretary of Agriculture.

The contents cover a variety of subjects, including fifty recipes of savory dishes, and much general information, such as: "General methods of preparing meats; utilizing cheaper cuts of meats in palatable dishes; a simple but practical method of clarifying fats; methods of extending the flavor of meats."

The recipes have been selected from a wide range collected from approved sources and are all simple formulas, calling for such items of food as are generally to be found in every household, and requiring no technical knowledge to compound.

Fired!

In its broader view the fall of Cannon is an affirmative answer to the cry of the people for relief from a tariff oppression, unparalleled in the legislative history of the United States, says the National Monthly. Had it not been for the failure of the administration to redeem its tariff pledge of a revision downward; had it not been for the enactment of the Payne-Aldrich law, the Democrats in Congress could not have secured the support of a sufficient number of Republican Congressmen to overthrow the gag rules of Congress. The first step in the fight for popular rights has restored to the House its powers and taken from the Speaker his tyranny. But the work will not be completed until the unjust and corrupting tariff law of the extraordinary session is wiped from the statute books. To that task the Democracy must be persistently and irrevocably committed. The insurgents may have been seeking only the honor of success; the Democrats hope to attain more, for the logic of a situation which has returned to the House its power must, if carried to a finality, returned to the people that equality of opportunity which by tariff and other special privilege legislation has been taken from them.

When Cannon fell, not an individual but an institution tumbled. The battle which raged for two days in the House of Representatives did not seek to end the political career of simply a Congressman, or even a Speaker of the House; it was fought to destroy an oligarchy throttling a Republic. And Mr. Cannon did no more than his predecessors, Henderson and Reed, and every other representative of the Republican policy of Government would have done in his stead. It was not Cannon, in the fullest sense, who is accountable for the condition in which the nation found itself. The party of Hanna and Quay, Platt, Penrose, Aldrich, the party of Allids and Conger, preaching patriotism and purity, but building up a government for the few, made easier by the instituting of gag rules, at last seems to have been exposed. It took a long while for the good citizenship among the rank and file of the Republican party to assert itself, but the oppression of the Aldrich tariff brought the necessary recruits to the Democratic position to unhorse the "old guard."

To the leadership of the Hon. Champ Clark and the patriotic efforts of the solid Democratic representation in the House is this splendid result due. Even our brilliant young Brooklyn Democrat—the Hon. John J. Fitzgerald—saw the error of a previous lapse and aided energetically in swinging the party to victory.

The ideal carriage horse is the American trotting bred horse, with size, speed, courage, and the true trotting gait, with plenty of knee and hock action. In addition he must have a clean cut head and neck, style and finish, plenty of substance without coarseness.

Recognizing the demand for this class of horses, I selected Taylor Simmons 23489, a young horse which fills all the requirements of the typical carriage horse. If the theory that "like begets like" be true, he will produce horses of this type when mated with good mares. Through his veins flow the blood of the greatest trotting families. He traces twice to George Wilkes and five times to Mambrino Chief II. This is backed by the stout thoroughbred blood of Boston.

THE SANCI DIAMOND.

Its Course Since the Time Queen Elizabeth Bought It.
Elizabeth of England purchased the famous Sanci diamond when De Sanci, extravagant and splendid, was low in purse. When Charles became king and sent Buckingham to Paris to bring back his bride, Henrietta, the messenger wore the Sanci. Charles quarreled with his queen, Henrietta, and with his parliament, and not long afterward Cromwell asked for his head. Henrietta gave the diamond to the Earl of Worcester. Worcester probably gave it back to the Stuarts, for whom he ruined himself, for it descended to James II. James' disastrous reign cost him the crown, but he kept the Sanci. That and other jewels which he took away with him supported various Stuart pretenders. This particular one was sold to Louis XIV. of France for $125,000.

Stolen with other jewels in 1792, the Sanci disappeared for thirty-six years. A jeweler came by it, and Prince Demidoff purchased it for his wife. Twenty years later she let it go to Jamsetjee Jeejeeboy, a rich merchant of Bombay. Again it appeared at a Paris jeweler's shop and was sold to the maharajah of Puttilala. He, too, came upon hard times. It was from a London jeweler that William Waldorf Astor bought it for his son's bride.—Franklin Clark in Everybody's Magazine.

THE SPIDER.

It Differs From an Insect in Five Main Particulars.

The spider is not an insect, though probably nine people out of ten would class it under this term. With scorpions and mites spiders form a class in the animal kingdom known as arachnida. This name is derived from a mythical personage called Arachne, the daughter of a purple dyer of Lydia, who was fabled to have challenged Minerva to a trial of skill in spinning. So indignant was the goddess at this act of boldness that she forthwith transformed the hapless challenger into a spider, presumably in order that she might have the best possible opportunity of practicing the art on which she prided herself so much.

Spiders differ from insects in five main particulars. Their eyes are simple instead of compound, they have eight legs in place of six, they do not pass through the metamorphoses which are characteristic of insects, they have no antennae and their breathing is accomplished by means of organs which combine the functions of lungs and gills instead of by tubes pervading their bodies. These points of distinction are sufficient to determine the fact that it is impossible to class spiders as insects.

The "Picket."

The picket was generally inflicted on cavalry and artillery men and was a singularly brutal bit of torture. A long post, near which stood a stool, was driven into the ground. The delinquent was ordered to mount the stool, and his right hand was fastened to a hook in the post by a noose, drawn up as high as it could be stretched, round his wrist. A stump the height of the stool, with its end cut to a round and blunt point, was also driven into the earth close to the post. Then the stool was taken away, and the sufferer had nothing to rest his bare feet upon but the stump, "which, though it did not usually break the skin," says Captain Grose, "put him in great torture, his only means of relief being by resting his weight on his wrist, the pain of which soon became intolerable." One can very well believe him, especially when he makes the addition that a man was not infrequently left to stand in this position for half an hour, although the orthodox period of endurance was fifteen minutes.—London Graphic.

Seizing the Opportunity.

Doctor—You have no reason to believe, madam, that your husband shot himself intentionally?

Madam—Oh, dear, no! It was purely accidental. But is he seriously hurt?

Doctor—Quite seriously, but I think we can save him.

Madam—What are you going to do now with all those horrid surgical instruments?

Doctor—We are going to probe for the bullet.

Madam—Yes? Well, doctor, while you are about it won't you be good enough to see if you can't find a gold collar button I lent him last week and that he carelessly swallowed?

Athletic Exercises.

Flattered Restaurant Keeper—I'm glad to hear, sir, that you've been growing so strong since you began coming to my restaurant. Fullett—Well, it's a fact. You see, my habits are sedentary, and I can't afford to enter a gymnasium. Yes, sir, your steaks and roast fowls are making a new man of me.

No Difference.

Miss Wayruppe—It was my good fortune that my ancestors came over in the Mayflower. Miss Newrich—May four! Why, my folks made their fortune in September wheat.—St. Louis Times.

Sarcastic.

"There's just one thing I wanted to say to you," began Mrs. Acid to her husband.

"Only one, Mr.ia?" queried he solicitously. "Aren't you feeling well?"

Spermaceti added to boiled starch gives the goods a gloss. Borax makes the starch stiffer.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—Not much attention is being given to the question of pooling by Madison county tobacco growers. They are going ahead putting in big crops and seem to lose little sleep over the pool.

—Total receipts of live stock at the Chicago market last week were 46,700 cattle, 79,000 hogs and 4,700 sheep. The week's receipts, compared with the previous week, in round numbers increased 2,000 cattle, decreased 15,600 hogs and 100 sheep. Compared with corresponding week last year cattle increased 5,000, hogs decreased 56,100 and sheep 11,000.

—The hog scarcity is effecting the entire world. So difficult is it to secure a surplus of hog products that one English provision house reports that in the last week of February it handled hams and bacon from ten different countries, including the United States, Canada, England, Ireland, Denmark, Holland, France, Russia, Siberia and Roumania. It is also known that a cargo of frozen hog carcasses from China was landed in Liverpool that week. No country has more than a small stock of hog products to offer. Lard is reported to be especially scarce in Europe, and oleo oil, coconut fat, cotton seed oil and various compound vegetable oils are being used as partial or complete substitutes for hog fat.

—Farmers whose tobacco has not been delivered, would do well to examine it. A press dispatch from Carlisle says: "Tobacco growers of Nicholas and adjoining counties in many places are busy moving their 1909 tobacco owing to the report that it is beginning to funk and spoil, where it is bulked in the barns of the growers. Considerable damage has already been reported from some sections and there is a general rush being made either to deliver to the equity re-drying houses or prepare to re-dry in local barns. It is said unless immediate action is taken to remove it from the bulks great damage will result."

—During 1909 the United States Department of Agriculture made quite an extensive examination of grass and clover seeds to determine the extent to which they were being adulterated. In doing this work Kentucky bluegrass seed received considerable attention 416 samples of what was being offered for sale as Kentucky bluegrass were obtained in the pen market. Fourteen of these samples were found to be wholly or in part Canada bluegrass.

While this is bad enough, it is a big improvement over conditions the previous year. These tests illustrate how Kentucky bluegrass seed growers have been and still are being swindled by branding any old stuff as a Kentucky product and selling it to the public.

—From Massachusetts comes the report that the presidents of one of the big railroads has purchased a dozen Angora goats to run with his flock of Southdown sheep as a protection against dogs. It was about twenty years ago when a like proposition gained currency through this country and there was belief that "Billy" would make it too hot for the curs if they came about a flock over which they had been placed. We note, however, that the plan was not followed up, and have not heard of it until seeing the notice above referred to. If anyone could guarantee protection to sheep in this way there would be a rise in the price of billy goats.

Find Adulterated Flour.

Government officers have found 138,860 pounds of alleged adulterated flour in Covington, and petitions have been filed in the Federal Court looking to the condemnation of the flour which has been confiscated. The Carr Milling Co., of Hamilton, O., and the Early & Daniel Co., of Cincinnati, are named as the manufacturers. The petitions allege the use of bleached oxide of nitrogen, and the grade of flour is said to be different from the grade on the label.

BLUE GRASS LEAGUE NOTES.

Winchester is improving her park by the erection of a new grandstand and the addition of a number of conveniences.

Work, which was begun on the improvements at the local park last week is progressing nicely. The high board fence surrounding the park has been removed to make room for the addition to the grandstand and the erection of new bleachers which will greatly increase the seating capacity. The work of putting the ground in condition to receive the players on the fifteenth is in charge of Mr. Ed Turner, who hopes to have the grounds in first class shape by the first of next week.

The following additional exhibition games at White Park are announced by the management: April 18, Berry; April 19, Transylvania University; April 24, Hustlers, Cincinnati; April 28, Georgetown College; April 2 and May 1, All Kentucky, Covington. May 2, State University will be the attraction, and a great game will follow as the boys will then be rounding up for the opening game at Lexington, on Thursday, May 5.

Pitcher John Schenbourg in a letter to President Bacon says that he is in great shape physically, having gained in weight, tipping the beam at one hundred and seventy-eight pounds, and requests that he be allowed to pitch the initial game against the Colts. Schenbourg, it will be remembered, pitched Lexington off the diamond last season in a phenomenal no-hit game and wants to try the experiment again on the opening day of the league season.

Every player under contract to the Paris team has been ordered to report for practice work on the twelfth of April. Manager McKernan will precede the players by at least a week in order to familiarize himself with the duties of a purely local nature that falls to the lot of manager.

President Bacon yesterday received a communication from Manager Ed. McKernan, stating that he had signed "Bill" Kuhlmann, who he claims eclipses anything in the line of an infielder in the Blue Grass League. Before the week is out we will probably be able to give the names of a pitcher and catcher for whom Manager McKernan is negotiating. He also has out lines for several other good men.

THEATRICAL.

"LITTLE JOHNNY JONES."

A tremendous amount of interest has been manifested by local theatre-goers over the approaching engagement in this city of the big musical success, "Little Johnny Jones," an original and clever play set to music by Geo. M. Cohan, which last season attained great vogue with New York and Chicago theatre-goers. It has only been presented in the very largest cities. It will be seen here with the same beautiful and massive production which distinguished its long runs in the leading cities and will be presented by a company of fifty people, including one of the largest and best drilled choruses in America. At the Paris Grand on Monday, April 11.

NORTH MIDDLETOWN ITEMS.

Mr. Bruce Buffington was a visitor in Paris yesterday.

Miss Neil Marcum, of Lexington, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Ida Everman.

Mr. J. V. Moore, of Lexington, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Moore.

The North Middletown base ball team defeated the Carlisle team Saturday afternoon by a score of 17 to 5.

Friday was a busy day in Police Court for Judge C. M. Skillman when three violators were arraigned before his honor for trial. Tom West was assessed a fine of $25 and costs for disorderly conduct. West had provoked a quarrel with Jim Gay, and the latter had him placed under arrest. Asa Bratton was fined $10 and costs for disorderly conduct. Jim Gay and Joe Duncan, Jr., drew premiums in the sum of $20 and costs for engaging in a game of craps.

Jailed for Cutting.

Morris Hutsell, a negro, was arrested Sunday night by Patrolmen Link and Bishop, charged with malicious cutting. Hutsell was wanted by the police for cutting Sallie Turney, a negro woman, on Saturday night at the corner of Main and Fourteenth, where the woman alleges Hutsell approached her and after using abusive language, drew a knife and slashed her across the left arm, inflicting a painful wound. The Turney woman informed Chief of Police Elgin of the affair and he issued orders to the night police to be on the lookout for Hutsell. On Sunday night officers Link and Bishop went to Claysville where they located Hutsell and placed him under arrest. He will have his hearing this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

MATRIMONIAL.

A dispatch from Cynthia says: "Mr. and Mrs. W. G. [Craigmyle] were surprised by a telegram announcing that their son, Hugh V. Craigmyle, and Miss Edith G. Culbertson were married in Covington March 12. Mr. Craigmyle is a telegraph operator in the service of the Louisville and Nashville at Paris. He had made a visit home since his marriage, but so well did they keep the secret of the marriage that the first news the family had of it was in the telegram received. The bride is the daughter of Mr. George Culbertson, of Kyland, Ky."

Mr. Frank Hensley and Miss Margaret Bush of Winchester, were united in marriage at the residence of Mr. L. D. Harris, on Higgins avenue, Sunday afternoon at five o'clock, the Rev. Geo. W. Clark officiating.

Mr. John Shannon and Miss Mary Hanley, of Riddles Mills, this county, will be united in marriage at the Catholic church Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock, the Rev. Father Eugene DeBruyn officiating. After the ceremony the couple will leave for an extended bridal trip in the South.

The following invitations have been issued:

Dr. and Mrs. I. J. Spencer request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Julia Hogue, to Mr. William Breckinridge Ardery on the evening of Thursday, the fourteenth of April, nineteen hundred and ten at seven o'clock, Central Christian church Lexington, Kentucky.

At home after May the tenth Paris, Ky.

The marriage of Mrs. Bettie Davis of Georgetown, to Congressman Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, will occur next Saturday evening, April 9, at 7 o'clock.

The nuptials will take place at the handsome old home of the bride in Georgetown, and will be witnessed by the immediate family and most intimate friends of the contracting parties. Mrs. Davis is one of Kentucky's most popular society women, and is well known in Paris, having frequently been the guest of Mrs. Jos. M. Hall, in this city.

Elgin Making Good.

The Dayton, Ohio, Journal, in its issue of April 3 contained an account of the first game of the Dayton club against the Toledo club of the American Association. Jeff Elgin, of Paris, signed with the Dayton club, was a prominent figure in the game and played brilliantly. He was credited with two put-outs, a stolen base, and out of two times at bat made one hit, a two-bagger. The Dayton club defeated Toledo by a score of 4 to 3. The Journal also contains half-tone pictures of the Dayton club, Elgin being one of the number.

To Visit the Bourbon Lodge.

On Monday night, April 25, Imperial Encampment, I. O. O. F., will visit Bourbon Lodge, I. O. O. F., in a body, it being on the evening before Orphans Home Rally Day, April 26. This is the anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and it was deemed appropriate that the Orphans Home Rally Day be set for a celebration of the anniversary of the founding of the order. This order which now has more than a million and a half members, was founded in Baltimore in 1819, ninety-one years ago, by five men, and all the lodges in this State have been asked to initiate at least five men on the day mentioned as the anniversary of the founding of the order and also, as Orphans Home Rally Day.

Escaped Prisoner Landed.

Ed Trumbo, a negro, who escaped from the city quarry last week, where he was serving a jail sentence for disorderly conduct, was captured and landed in jail Saturday night by Patrolman Fred Link after he had made another attempt to evade punishment. The police have been on the outlook for Trumbo since his escape and on Saturday night Patrolman Link, learning of his whereabouts, went and placed him under arrest. On the way to jail Trumbo made a desperate attempt to escape by breaking away from the officer and dashing through the crowded streets. Link followed in close pursuit and overtook the fleeing negro on Sixth street between Main and High, where a blow from the officer's locust put an end to the chase. Trumbo was knocked unconscious by the blow and when he recovered sufficiently he accompanied the officer to jail without causing any further trouble.

Halley's Comet Nearing the Earth.

Halley's comet will be close enough to the earth in a week or ten days so that it can be seen through the telescope. The comet was visible earlier in the season, but since that time has receded from the earth, passing near the sun, but is approaching again on its outward journey.

In the middle part of April the comet will be visible to the naked eye just before sunrise. During the latter part of April it can be seen two hours before sunrise and on May 18 the comet can be seen in the evening. From that time on it will gradually disappear. On May 18 the comet will be 14,000,000 miles from the earth.

Kentucky Arbor and Bird Day.

From the office of Prof. J. G. Crabbe, Superintendent of Education of Kentucky, there has just been issued in neat and attractive form a little book entitled "Kentucky Arbor and Bird Day."

The work is compiled by Jennie C. Crabbe and she deserves nothing but commendation from every lover of nature's treasures and praise from all who would be pleased to see our State restored at least in part to conditions more like those which prevailed when it was first settled. Of course we cannot expect to let the whole surface be given up to forests. But let us ask if we have not forfeited entirely more than should be?

Our efforts to protect birds have been feeble and the result is to be seen wherever we turn—silence in the groves and increase of destructive insects. With a wide distribution of the little work of the superintendent, more protection will be provided for our feathered friends and they and their charming songs will increase. We are not told by what means this interesting compilation is to reach the public, but presumably through the schools. In any event every village and country home should somehow be supplied with a copy.

Forced To Leave Home.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calamine, Ark., "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. Its surely the King of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. Its positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Asthma—all Throat and Lung trouble. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Oberdorfers.

A Luxurious Prison.

Japan can boast of the most luxurious prison in the world. It is about fifteen miles from Tokyo. In the midst of gardens, where flourish medlars and cherry trees, encircled with ponds bearing fine crops of water lilies, rises the mass of spacious and airy cells. Lighting throughout is by electricity. Among other features are bathrooms with marble baths, hot and cold water, dressing rooms and reading rooms.

A Lesson In Morals.

Mother—Now, Willie, you told me a falsehood. Do you know what happens to little boys who tell falsehoods? Willie (sheepishly)—No. Mother—Why, a big black man, with only one eye in the center of his forehead, catches him and flies with him up to the moon and makes him pick up sticks for the rest of his life. Now, you will never tell a falsehood again, will you? It is dreadfully wicked.

Bourbon Fair Directors Meet.

The directors of the Bourbon County Agricultural Society met Thursday afternoon in the county court room, and was presided over by President Joseph M. Hall. The meeting was held to discuss plans for the holding of the sixty-fourth exhibition of the Society.

The board claimed the first week in September as the date of the fair, which will commence on Tuesday, September 6, and continue throughout the week. One important question which has come up at each annual exhibition of the society and one of unusual interest to horsemen, was the question of how many judges should pass upon the merits of each ring of horses in both saddle and harness classes. After considerable discussion of the question the board of directors by an aye and nay vote decided to have one man judge each ring and different men for the saddle and harness classes.

It was claimed by the advocates of the one judge system that men competent to judge a harness horse, that men of state-wide reputation should be selected, and with special reference to their knowledge of the saddle and harness horse, to the end that a high class horseman officiate in each ring, so that every exhibitor could feel that his entry had had a square deal.

The question as to what class of amusements should be secured for the 1910 exhibition was deferred to a later meeting of the board.

DISCIPLINE.

The Way Binks Tried It on His Six-months-old Baby.

Binks had sent Mrs. Binks on a visit to her mother, and he was on the job with the six-months-old baby.

In the night the baby woke and cried. Binks looked at his watch—three-quarters of an hour till bottle time. He said to himself:

"Let him yell. He's a healthy little Indian, and he must be disciplined."

Then Binks tried to sleep.

But Binks couldn't sleep. Every cry grew more pathetic and abused and heart sick and discouraged. Each cry said more and more plainly: "I have no friends or relatives. I'm unhappy and uncomfortable and want some one to be good to me."

But Binks, the stubborn and stiff necked, stuck it out, though each cry stabbed him clear through.

Finally (maybe he set it forward a bit—who knows?) Binks' watch announced the arrival of bottle time. He went to the icebox for the food, heated it and took it to his now faintly sobbing infant son.

But the infant son could not take the bottle. He choked on the first swallow, then put up his hands and renewed his wordless plea to the big man he could see dimly through his tears.

Then that father said, "Discipline be hanged!" Maybe, though, it wasn't "hanged" he said, but the vowel sound is right, anyway. He took up that baby, and the baby stuck to his daddy like fly paper. Further attempts to lay him down were futile. He wanted no food but heart food, no milk but that of human kindness. So the big man laid that baby beside him on the pillow; the baby put one rose petal hand to his father's stubby cheek, gave a long, quivering, satisfied sigh and slept for six unbroken hours.

As Binks lay there, afraid to stir lest he disturb the little one and feeling like a horse thief because he had let the love hungry infant cry his heart out, he repeated frequently:

"Discipline be hanged!"—Chicago News.

She Was Willing.

He—Do you know that as long as I have known you I have never seen you dressed in white? She—Indeed! Are you, then, so partial to the color? He—Not exactly that, but whenever I see a girl dressed in white I am always tempted to kiss her. She—Will you excuse me for a quarter of an hour?

Didn't Believe In It.

The Squire—That's a splendid horse, Giles. I suppose you feed it daily with punctuality.

Giles—Naw, zur. None o' yer noo-fangled foods vur me. Just 'ay and oats—oats and 'ay.—London Telegraph.

Business.

Miss Coy (at the garden party)—Let you kiss me? Certainly not. I've only known you an hour. Mr. Hustler (looking at his watch)—Well, then, suppose I come around in an hour and a quarter?—Boston Transcript.

A Constipation Remedy Free

There is no action of your daily life of greater importance than to see that your bowels move. They should move at least once a day naturally, and by that is meant without any help. If they do not move at least once a day you can consider yourself constipated and it is time you did something about it.

You will be glad to know there is a way out of the difficulty. Lemuel Landerdale, an old soldier at Quincy, Ill., Elmer McMillan, of Speed, Mo., Mrs. Mahan, of Stonewall, Miss., and many others were as you are now. But one day they awoke to the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin was curing their friends, so they bought it too and it cured them. Today they are loud in praise of it.

What Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin did for them it should do for you. Surely your constipation is no worse than theirs, one of whom had it since '61. It only remains for you to realize that salts are of but temporary good, and what you want is a permanent cure; that purgative tablets, cathartic pills and such violent things, make a great show of doing something, do nothing that is lasting. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a scientific preparation, a laxative- tonic, a mild syrupy liquid that contains ingredients that not only cure the constipation, but tone the intestinal muscles so that they learn again to work without help. A bottle can be bought of any druggist for the small price of 50 cents, and there is a dollar size for families who have already found out its wonderful value in stomach, liver and bowel troubles, in old or young.

Send your name and address to the doctor and a free trial bottle will be sent you so that you can test it before buying.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 500 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

Natural Gas Found.

Natural gas was discovered near Pinnell, about eleven miles from Georgetown, while Joseph Bailey was drilling a well on his 20 acre farm, near his residence. Upon reaching 190 feet, a flow was struck so strong that the occupants of the residence had to leave. It is now temporarily piped and believed to be strong enough to supply this city.

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature

Dr. J. C. Pierce

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may, thereby make a little bigger profit. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

—Nancy Hanks, the famous trotting mare, although still living, is to be perpetuated in marble. Nancy, in her day, was one of the finest and fleetest horses living. Injunction Against Cumberland.

Judge Edward T. Sanford, of the Circuit Court of the United States for the middle district of Tennessee at Nashville Friday handed down an opinion granting to the Postal Telegraph Cable Company an injunction against the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company, a Bell company, discriminating against the Postal Telegraph Company in the matter of charges for telephone service. A similar injunction was granted in behalf of the Postal against the East Tennessee Telephone Company, which is a subsidiary company of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company. It appears that the telephone companies refused to furnish telephones to the Postal Telegraph Company at the same rental that was charged other subscribers to the telephone and insisted on the Postal paying to the telephone company fifteen per cent of the tolls taken in by the Postal on messages received and two cents per message delivered by the Postal over the telephone.
